

Rostislav ("Dexter") Sibirtsev

Phone: +3725111400

Email: dexter.sibirtsev@gmail.com

Date of Birth: 24 October 1995

Education

- 1. Stockholm School of Economics (SSE, Handelshögskolan) – Stockholm, Sweden [September 2017 – June 2019]
Degree: MSc Master in Finance (specialized in Investment Management)
Thesis: How to Avoid Bankruptcy?: Monte Carlo Simulation of Three Financial Markets, using the Multifractal Model of Asset Returns
- 2. University College London (UCL) – London, United Kingdom [September 2014 – June 2017]
Degree: BA Economics and Business with East European Studies
- 3. Institut Le Rosey – Rolle, Switzerland [September 2008 – June 2014]
International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma: (Bilingual diploma with English and French)

Experience

- 1. Buyon.ru (Russian online retail start-up) – Assistant accountant and content manager [July – August 2016; June – August 2017] (Moscow, Russia)
 - Attended regular business negotiations with the start-up's CEO. Also attended new employee interviews
 - Performed various office administration duties (e.g. overview contracts, translate letters)
 - Assisted in filing company accounts with Excel and 1C:Enterprise software
- 2. Swedbank – Customer relations intern [June 2016] (Tallinn, Estonia)
 - Helped gather field survey data for and promote the company's mobile app. Personally presented on the app's benefits over internet banking to over 150 clients, and personally assisted many in transitioning.
 - Work shadowed for client relations managers and financial holdings advisors. Learned about the various functions of a bank through comprehensive training programs and regular presentations.
- 3. UCL Baltic Society – Treasurer [2016 – 2017] (London, United Kingdom)
 - Personally recruited over twenty people to join the organization.
 - Help organize speaking events, particularly administration and logistics.
 - Practice negotiation with organizers and sponsors such as the UCL student union and small business owners.
 - Fully responsible for financial duties of the organization.
- 4. Guitar teacher part-time [2012 – 2014] (Rolle, Switzerland)
 - Developed patience, trusting relationships and a friendly, helpful attitude in one-on-one lessons with clients, and an ability to analyze their individual needs.

Skills

Programming: Python 3 (Django, Jupyter Notebooks); JavaScript (NodeJS, React & Redux, SvelteJS); HTML5 and CSS; Java;

Design: Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator and Audition

Languages: English, Estonian and Russian (fluent); French and Spanish (Conversational)

Office IT: Research and analysis with Excel and Stata; Word; Powerpoint;

Business knowledge: Econometrics; financial securities; accounting; international business and economics; basic business law;

Leadership: Years spent on several student committees and as a rock band leader have ensured that I am very comfortable with being on stage, speaking in front of large audiences and being in a position of responsibility.

Awards

Practical programs:

- UCL Global Citizenship Programme (2015) – learned the economics of emerging central European markets, gained an awareness of the cultural variety in the area, and received language training (German). Also gave two presentations.

Scholarships:

- UCL Provost's Excellence scholarship (2014) – for exceptional academic performance.

Languages:

- French – DELF B2 foreign language diploma.
- Spanish – earned a top-mark of 7 for Spanish B standard level in the International Baccalaureate.

Outside Interests

Reading: I read about 50 books per year. Topic of interest include: general science; mathematics; philosophy; classical literature; history; psychology; evolutionary biology.

Music: During my school years, I managed and played lead-guitar in several musical bands. On two occasions, one of my bands performed a nearly three-hour concert in an Alpine five-star hotel. I can thus claim that I am very comfortable with leadership, teamwork, negotiation and public performance. I have also spent two years as a guitar teacher to young and older students.

Other: Fitness; yoga; snowboarding.